which ate all those apples.

The interest this year in Bible study at the Young Men's Christian Association is illustrated by the largest holiday attendance the departent has had. It used to be the custom to have a vacation during the Christmas and New Year's week. Then it was attempted to have the regular sessions but the course was questionable. But this year the attendance was the best and has proven that the interest can be so great as to run right through the season. The attendance at the suppers this year during the height of the holiday ex-citement was equal to the average When the news spread about town attendance of some other years.
